Las Ramblas golf course was opened in 1990.

This course was created by the famous designer Pepe Gancedo, always providing his designs with creative and innovative characteristics with quality that has earned his national and international reputation.

Las Ramblas golf course has incomparable beauty and as its name indicates, has been developed on a steep terrain surrounded by watercourses. The vigorous vegetation surrounding the course is formed primarily of leafy Mediterranean pines that create an unforgettable backdrop for the course.

Furthermore, Las Ramblas golf course offers Magnificent views of the Mediterranean Sea from many locations.

Thanks to the course's leafy vegetation, there are abundant shady areas making it a pleasant place for playing golf even in the warmest months of the year

The course has hosted important Competitions:

At the Professional Level:

- APG (Association of Golf Professionals from the Valencia Community) Championship celebrated in 2003 and 2005

- International Tryouts for the EPD Tour in 2003

At the Amateur Level:

- Las Ramblas has often hosted the Grupo Soledad and Trofeo El Corte Ingles tours.

Las Ramblas is without a doubt a course that remains in the memory of those players that visit it.
